

Membership Bylaws & Agreement

The Drawing Room Cigar Club is a state-of-the-art membership-only Cigar Club featuring Pittsburgh's most exclusive private smoking lounge, boasting panoramic views of the city skyline, large humidor and plentiful cigar shop featuring some of the highest-quality and most exclusive, difficult-to-find cigars in the world. The Drawing Room offers membership to men and women who appreciate the pleasures of fine cigars, the prestige of exclusive membership options, and the year-round company of those who share this passion.

At the club, members can relax, entertain clients and friends, conduct business meetings or simply smoke in a friendly and relaxed atmosphere. Savor your favorite beverage. Choose from the numerous dining options offered throughout The Distillery. Cigars are not required to be purchased at the club, and there is no cutting fee.

The Drawing Room Cigar Club is open to adults 21 or older. The sole purpose of the club is to provide a secure and comfortable environment for its patrons, and the terms and conditions in the membership agreement are intended to ensure such an environment.

The Drawing Room Cigar Club is a private, membership-based club that has a non-transferable membership. There is no rebate or prorate for members who choose to relinquish their membership including initiation fees and monthly membership dues. Bylaws may be changed or modified from time to time and club members do not have, nor should they infer, voting rights or input in the operations of the club. We are certainly pleased to entertain suggestions of members, but The Drawing Room and its management reserve all rights regarding all aspects of membership and operation.

The privacy of members is paramount. We do not publish, sell, or distribute membership names or contact information to co-members or third parties. The club does encourage members to use the club in a professional manner and take advantage of its numerous business resources, amenities and events while treating other members with courtesy, respect, and privacy.

The Drawing Room Cigar Club expects members to operate in a manner that is professional and respectful of the club generally, the club's facilities and amenities, and other members while on club property. Failure to meet this expectation at the complete discretion of club management may result in immediate suspension and/or termination of membership, without refund.

The Drawing Room Cigar Club will conduct and interview membership applicants and reserves the right to review membership information and may, at any time and at management's sole discretion, adjust membership roles/tiers, accessibility, terminate membership, and/or adjust included amenities or programming.

Guest Policies

Members are permitted to bring guests in accordance with their membership level's parameters and constraints. Any questions regarding guest admission should be directed toward club management. Spouses do not count towards guest policy. Guests must be signed in at desk before entry. Repeat guest fees are as follows:

$50 per visit after exceeding allowances.

As with all members, guests are expected to adhere to all policies and procedures, as applicable.

Dress Code

Members and their guests may come as they are, business or casual attire that is respectful to their co-members and the club in general. Club management reserves the right to enforce dress code guidelines and recommendations at any time and at its sole discretion. Club management also reserves the right to ask a member and guests of members to vacate the premises if attire is deemed inappropriate.

Special Events

The Drawing Room Cigar Club regularly host special events for private enjoyment of members, with some being restricted to members only while other events may permit guests at the sole and absolute discretion of management.
